

12 WEEK COURSE WEBSITE

Week 1

- Welcome to the studio
- Introduction to clay
- Learning wedging
- learning pinching technique

Week 2

- Learning Coiling techniques
- Expanding on pinch pots and learning how to decorate and finish work

Week 3

- Half of the class will be learning how to throw on the wheel
- The other half of the class will be continuing on pinching and coiling technique

Week 4

- Half of the class will be learning how to throw on the wheel
- The other half of the class will be continuing on pinching and coiling technique

Week 5

- Half of the class will be learning to Trim on the wheel and experimenting with throwing
- The other half will be learning how to expand on hand-building skills

Week 6

- Half of the class will be learning to Trim on the wheel and experimenting with throwing
- The other half will be learning how to expand on hand-building skills

Week 7

- Learning how to slab build
- With the guidance of the teacher expanding and exploring with the techniques

Week 8

- Learning how to slips decorate
- With the guidance of the teacher expanding and exploring with the techniques

Week 9

- Learning how to make a plate
- With the guidance of the teacher expanding and exploring with the techniques

Week 10

- With the guidance of the teacher expanding and exploring with the techniques
- Last making class, all work to be finish ready for firing

Week 11

- In this class, you will learn about glazing and how to apply this to your own work.

Week 12

- In this class, you will learn about glazing and how to apply this to your own work.
- There is a high chance that some of your work will not be ready to glaze for this last class. In which case you will be booked into a class that works for you to finish the work.